

It Takes a Village: Why your supervision matters

2017 ArkSHA Convention

Presenters: Arianne Pait-ASU, Aletha Cook-U of A, Kathy McDaniel-UCA, Jan Traugher-Harding, Jennifer Fisher-Harding, Jennifer Franklin-UAMS/UA-LR, and Chenell Loudermill-UAMS/UA-LR

Learning Objectives:

1. The participants will review the role and responsibilities of clinical supervisors.
2. The participants will discuss the pros and cons of being a clinical supervisor.
3. The participants will acquire knowledge about available resources for supervisors.
4. The participants will gain knowledge about various training programs across the state.

Small Group Discussion:

Why talk about supervision?
Why does supervision matter?

What We Know About Clinical Supervision:

American Board of Audiology (ABA)
ASHA's Special Interest Group (SIG 11)
Council for Clinical Certification (CFCC)
Council on Academic Accreditation (CAA)
ASHA's Position Statement regarding Clinical Supervision
ASHA's Ad Hoc Committee on Supervision and Training (AHCST)
Council on Academic Programs in Communication Sciences and Disorders (CAPCSD)

Roles & Responsibilities of the Clinical Educator

How can I give back to the profession?
What do I have to offer a graduate student?
What does a particular program expect from me?

Pros & Cons Regarding Clinical Supervision

It supervising worth my time?
How do students benefit from my supervision?

Available Resources for Clinical Educator Training

Free online CEs from CAPCSD!

Clinical Supervisor/Educator Feedback

When you don't want to be the bad guy but the behavior must be changed!

Overview of the Programs Around the State of Arkansas

Harding University
Arkansas State University
University of Central Arkansas
University of Arkansas-Fayetteville
University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences/UA-Little Rock-Audiology
University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences/UA-Little Rock-Speech-Language Pathology